

Make your content worth coming back to.

Build a richer learning offer around your expertise, with clear visibility and control over your content.

Explore a new licensed offer.

Create a premium learning experience around content you already own.

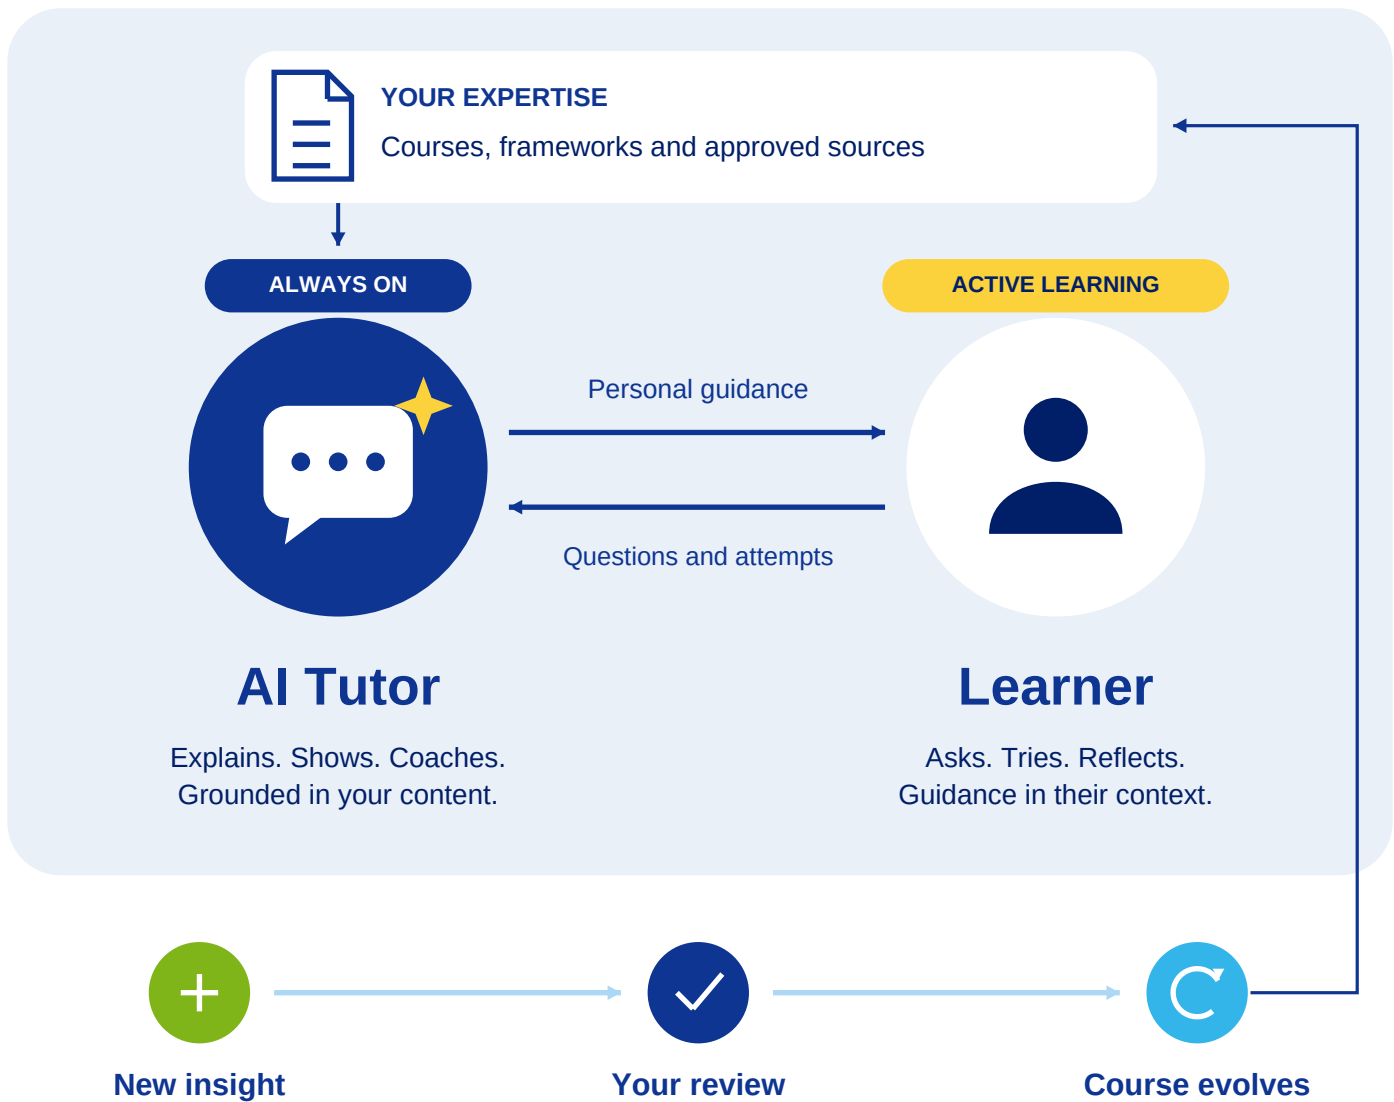

Your knowledge creates the value.

Together, we shape the experience, reporting and content controls.

Your expertise. An AI Tutor at every step.

From first question to practice and return, guidance stays grounded in your approved material.

A richer experience, built around your content.

Return and continue. No re-enrollment.

This is a Living Course: your expertise, evolving content and continuing AI guidance in one experience.

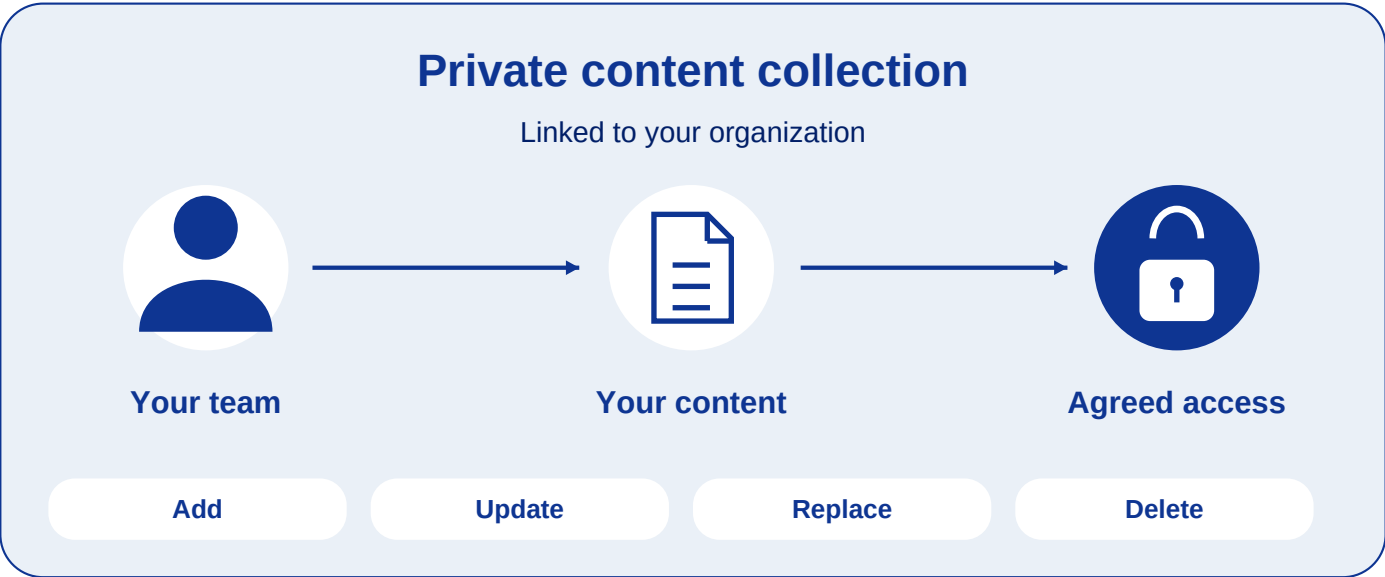

Understand → Practise → Remember → Apply

Practice and spaced retrieval cover selected topics. Voice roleplay is demonstrated locally on selected AI Skills topics. Partner-topic adaptation and availability are agreed for the pilot.

Your content. Your decisions.

Control what is shared, how it changes and when it is withdrawn.

PROPOSED PARTNER CONTROL MODEL

Your expertise remains yours.

Permissions and permitted uses are agreed before launch.

See what is happening.

-  Participation
-  Progress
-  Practice outcomes

Across agreed courses and audiences, within your reporting access.

A clear way to withdraw your content.

Agree the removal scope: source files, search copies and derived learning material.
